THE VICTORIOUS CHRIST

Revelation 5:4-5 tells us that the apostle John wept: “I wept much because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or look into it. And one of the elders said to me, Do not weep; behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome so that He may open the scroll and its seven seals.” Why did John weep? It was because in the whole universe—heaven, earth, under the earth, and in the sea—there was no one worthy to open the secret of God’s economy. No one was worthy; so he wept. But one of the elders came and told him not to weep, because there was One who was worthy, and that was Christ. There is no need to weep when you have Christ. Without Christ everyone in the entire universe must weep. Without Christ the whole universe is empty, and without Christ no one is worthy. But, Hallelujah! today we have Christ! So we do not need to weep. Christ is now the Lion: He is the Lion of the tribe of Judah. He has prevailed, and He has won the victory. So this book is a book of victory. We do not need to weep; we have to shout! We must rejoice and praise because we have such a Christ. He is the Lion that has prevailed. He has won the victory. So we all must say, “Victory, victory, Hallelujah!”

EVERYTHING BEING ACCOMPLISHED

“The seventh angel trumpeted; and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign forever and ever” (11:15). Do not believe the present situations. Everything on this earth is a lie and a falsehood. Do not believe that it is real. We must tell Satan that this is a lie. The wars in the world today are lies. The troubles in the schools are lies. All things are lies. We have seen that the kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord. Hallelujah! Amen!

In my travels many people have told me how disappointing the situation is in the world. But do we need to be disappointed? No! We must shout, “The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord!” We have seen the victory. Some victories have been won in the past, some victories are being won at the present, and some victories will be won in the future. Some are gained in the past, some are being gained now, and some will be gained in the future. But whether they were gained, are now being gained, or will be gained, it is all the same in the eyes of God. With God there is no time. Everything has come to pass. Hallelujah, it has come to pass! The Bible does not say that it will come to pass or that it must come to pass, but that it “has come to pass” (Rev. 21:6). Praise the Lord!

THE BROTHERS OVERCOMING

Then in Revelation 12:9-11 we see that the accuser, Satan, has been cast down. “The great dragon was cast down, the ancient serpent, he who is called the Devil and Satan, he who deceives the whole inhabited earth; he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him. And I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, Now has come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ, for the accuser of our brothers has been cast down, who accuses them before our God day and night. And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they loved not their soul-life even unto death.” These verses do not say that Satan should be cast down, but that he has been cast down. Do you believe this? Hallelujah! It has come to pass! Then the salvation, the kingdom, the glory, and the power are the Lord’s. Verse 11 does not say that the brothers will overcome. No, they overcame. There is no need for us to overcome. This is not overcoming in the future. The brothers overcame the accuser because of the blood of the Lamb. Is the blood of the Lamb to be shed? No, the blood of the Lamb has already been shed two thousand years ago.

They overcame him because of the word of their testimony. There is no need for us to do anything but declare the word of our testimony. We can tell Satan, “Look, we have the word in Revelation 12:9-11; let us read it to you. This is the word of our testimony.” There is no need for us to strive. We must realize that Satan has already been overcome. The blood of the Lamb has been shed; the victory has been won for us already. Someday I would like to hear a young brother stand up in the meeting and say, “Satan, listen to me, read Revelation 12:9-11. If you will not read it, let me read it to you: ‘They overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb.’ This is the word of my testimony.”

There is one more thing in these verses. “They loved not their soul-life even unto death.” As long as we love our soul-life, the victory is gone. But as long as we do not love our soul-life, the victory is won. We must love not the soul-life. When we lose our soul-life, Satan loses the ground. If we love not the soul-life, he loses the battle. The brothers overcame Satan by the blood, by the word of their testimony, and by loving not their soul-life. Victory, victory, Hallelujah! (Excerpts from The Seven Spirits for the Local Churches, CWWL, 1969, vol. 2).

PRAYER BURDENS:

1. Lord, continue to strengthen and encourage us to overcome and keep Your work until the end. We are not satisfied with just being part of the woman, but we want to be among those who are the stronger ones today.
2. Thank You, Lord for showing us the most effective way to overcome – to take Your word and preach it to the enemy. Constitute us now with Your word so we can defeat the enemy on earth and prevail against him in heaven.
3. Lord, we are waiting for that day when the accuser of our brothers will be cast down. Strengthen us to preach to Satan the facts of Your victory today. May we all participate in executing Your judgment upon Your enemy.
4. Lord, apply the blood on our behalf according to Your evaluation of it. We do not believe the accusations of the enemy because we trust and believe in Your precious blood more. Cause us to know all that blood implies and apply it.
5. Give us the boldness to take the blood and to testify to the enemy. May our conscience be without offense that the enemy would have no ground for accusations, and we can utter and declare all spiritual facts.
6. Lord, have mercy on us that we would see what feeble creatures we are. Makes us persons who pass through the cross to rid of anything that is not of You. May we all deny ourselves, take up the cross and follow You.

North America/Europe/Other Burdens
