THE WORD OF THE LORD GROWING MIGHTILY AND PREVAILING

A Christian meeting is not a Sunday service—it is like a basketball game. Since we come to the meeting to “play ball,” the first thing we should do is to put on the uniform. Second, we need to be in position, ready to play. What is the “ball” in a meeting? It is speaking. We meet to speak the word of God. We do not meet merely to speak, but we meet to speak the word of God. If we come together merely to talk, there is no need for me to labor so much to teach you. On the way to the meeting, have you not been talking constantly? You have talked all the way up to the door of the meeting hall, but when the meeting is about to begin, all the mouths close. We come to the meeting to speak the word of God. Brothers and sisters, do you know how to speak the word of God? Are you able to speak the word of God? Do you want to speak the word of God? Do you love to speak the word of God? I hope that from today our meetings will have a change.

If you would all come to the meetings to speak the word of God, then my burden would be released. Do not think that I am too much. Today's Christianity is short of the word of God. Much of what you can hear in a church building are stories and parables. Everyone laughs heartily and then goes home. Perhaps you will say, “Praise the Lord, there is so much speaking in the church in the Lord's recovery!” It is true that in the church the Lord's speaking is abundant. However, I would like to ask, Do you speak the word of God? Would you speak the word of God? Can you speak the word of God? Do you love to speak the word of God?

...In Acts at least three times it is said that “the word of the Lord grew.” Acts 19:20 says, “The word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed.” Although the Lord's word is rich in His recovery, we cannot say that the Lord's word has been propagated through us nor that the word of the Lord is growing and is strong or prevailing. The reason it is not prevailing is that you do not speak the word of God and others do not speak the word of God. Nearly no one speaks. Only the elders and the co-workers speak a little. With only a few speaking, it is difficult for the word of God to grow mightily and prevail...

The Spirit Moving When Everyone Speaks

Our meetings should not have any form. A particular meeting could be started by anyone. Whoever comes first should begin to play the ball game. You may pray-read, sing a hymn, or stand up to speak something. You may say, “No one is here yet. To whom will I speak?” You can speak to the meeting hall, “O Lord! Fully sanctify this meeting hall. Anoint every seat so that those who sit on them will touch You, will sense Your presence.” Brothers and sisters, we do not realize how much we have been poisoned by religion. The New Testament does not tell us to sit still in the meeting and wait quietly for the pastor to arrive. On the contrary, 1 Corinthians 14:26 says, “Whenever you come together, each one has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has a tongue, has an interpretation.” It says that we should not wait for others to bring something, but everyone “has” something.

Having the Word First, Then the Spirit

Which do you have first, the Spirit or the word? I tell you that first you have the word, and then you have the Spirit. The electric current runs from the power plant to the meeting hall. I ask you, Do you first have electricity, or do you first have the cables? You cannot say that since there is no electricity in a certain place, there is no need to install any cables; neither can you say that since there is no current, it would be a waste to install cables. To say this seems reasonable, but you need to know that if you do not speak, the Spirit will not move.

...our coming to the meeting is for speaking the word of God. Only by everyone speaking the word of God in the meeting can clerical rank and religious organization among us be torn down. Only by everyone speaking the word of God can death, tradition, and habitual ways of doing things thoroughly be eradicated from among us. This all depends on our rising up one by one to speak the word of God (Excerpts from Meeting to Speak the Word of God, CWWL, 1985, vol. 4, ch 1).

PRAYER BURDENS:

1. We praise You as the Establisher of the kingdom. Come and take possession of the whole earth – judging and casting out Satan and bringing in the kingdom of God. Gain us that we would stand with You as Your co-kings.
2. Strengthen us that we may attain to have a part in the first resurrection, the out-resurrection where we could reign with You. Gain Your priests to bring man to God and Your kings to bring God in His authority to man.
3. Lord in You there is no falsehood – for You are Faithful and True – faithful to God and us, and true in carrying out God's economy. May we all participate when You sweep away and clear up the universe as Your bride.
4. Preserve us in this lawless, unrighteous age. We have no excuse not to preach the gospel. Use us in this age to cause the white horse to run, to preach the gospel and bear fruit to build up the Body of Christ for the kingdom of God.
5. Lord, we give ourselves to read, study, behold, contemplate and gaze on You as the Word of God, the expression, testimony and speaking of God. Thank You for coming not only to impart Your life into us, but also to be the Word that defeats the enemy.
6. Continue to strengthen and encourage us to wait for Your coming. We declare You are the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. Come and take possesses over the earth and execute justice and righteousness.
